IMPERIAL TRADE AGREEMENTS ARE CARRIED AT OTTAWA AND LONDON BY WIDE MAJORITIES

Six Progressives and Lone Liberal Vote With Government on Division

PREMIER BENNETT FLAYS OPPONENTS

OTTAWA, Nov. 3 (CP).—While Conservative cheers resounded through the corridors, the House of Commons tonight placed its stamp of approval on the Anglo-Canadian Trade Treaty, negotiated at the Imperial Economic Conference.

Supported by one Liberal, J. L. Daley (Hants-King, N.S.), and six Progressives, Conservatives rolled up a majority of forty-eight as a climax to three weeks of bitter debate. Maintaining their opposition to the last, Liberals enlisted two Independent and four Laborites in voting against the treaty.

GALLERIES CROWDED

Scores of persons were turned away from the galleries when Premier R. B. Bennett rose to close the debate. He pleaded for a "fair and honest trial" for the agreement "which will give Canadian producers free entry into the markets of 40,000,000 people," and he accused the Liberals, particularly R. H. Mackenzie King, of betraying and abandoning the time-honored party policy of fostering Empire trade through tariff preferences.

Parliament had witnessed an interesting spectacle during the debate, said Premier Bennett. It had witnessed the "betrayal of a great party." It had seen it "forewarn its leaders and forget its duties."

BETRAYED TRADITIONS

"And," he said, "the Liberal party has sacrificed its great history and tradition for the sake of a few seats in the House of Commons."

CHASE ENDS IN TRIO'S ARREST

Robbery Suspects Captured After Headlong Flight in Stolen Car

Two young men and an eighteen-year-old girl, captured by Constables George Clayards and Paul P. Smith, after a daring chase through the city at 4:15 o'clock yesterday morning, are being held at the city jail for questioning by Provincial Police in connection with the Imperial Oil Company safe robbery in Nanaimo and a Vancouver case, Chief Thomas Heatley stated yesterday.

The men are Marshall Parby, of Victoria, and Kendrick Rutherford, of Nanaimo. The girl also is from Nanaimo. The men have been charged with stealing a car from A. H. Clark, of 1044 Hamilton Street, Wednesday night and was "spotted" by police on Douglas Street, near Hillside Avenue, about 4:15 a.m. yesterday.

AVERT CRASH

Constables Clayards and Parr, who were on duty in a prowler car, and sighted the stolen machine, gave chase. The car sped up Douglas Street toward the city, and the prowler car had difficulty in keeping up with it. Police sounded their siren but the pursued failed to stop. Instead they swerved as they reached the crest of Douglas Street and the police car driver, George Clayards, had difficulty in averting a collision.

Finally the stolen machine was overhauled at Herald Street, and, as the police were about to force it into the curb, a figure leaped from the car and fled east along Herald Street.

Constable Parr jumped from the moving police car and gave chase. When the man refused to stop he fired a warning shot into the air.

Final Results of British Voting Show Few Changes

LONDON, Nov. 3 (CP).—Final results of Tuesday's municipal elections throughout the United Kingdom showed parties in virtually the same position as they had been when early returns from the thickly populated industrial areas became known.

Labor, which last year suffered a net loss of 200 seats in borough councils, finished this year with a net gain of fifteen. Conservatives fell back ten seats after their sweeping victory last year, in which they added 145 places on councils to their strength, while Liberals lost very appreciable leftward swing.

Deputy Minister of National Defence

COL. L. R. LAFLECHE of Ottawa, yesterday was appointed deputy minister of national defence. He succeeded George J. Desbarats, who retired November 1. Colonel Lafleche is a veteran of the Great War with a distinguished record and has been prominent in all ex-service men's movements.

D. R. HARRIS PASSES AWAY

Respected Pioneer Resident of Victoria Succumbs to Long Illness

Death removed one of the most highly respected pioneer residents of Victoria in the person of Dennis Reginald Harris, 603 Superior Street, last night.

In his passing a stalwart citizen of sixty years' residence in British Columbia is mourned by a host of friends, who will grieve with the bereaved family of a widow, two sons and two daughters who survive.

Mr. Harris, who had a high reputation as land surveyor, was a native of England, where he was born in 1871, and which he left in 1899 at the age of eighteen to come to Canada. After a brief residence in the East, where he engaged in his profession, he joined that band of hardy pioneers who surveyed across the wilds of the West in advance of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

DID NOTABLE WORK

On coming to Victoria in the early seventies, he opened offices and engaged in his profession. During a long and active life in British Columbia, he contributed greatly to the development of the province. Of robust frame and sturdy constitution he carried on work in many parts of the country, where the qualities of an iron will and bodily strength were essential of a surveyor.

Shortly after coming to Victoria he married Miss Martha Douglas, youngest daughter of Sir James Douglas, former Governor of Vancouver Island and British Columbia, who survives him.

Two daughters, Miss Hilda, Victoria, and Mrs. J. E. W. Bland, Moncton, N.B., and two sons, Colonel J. C. Harris, Victoria, and R. W. D. Harris, Vancouver, also survive.

Mr. Harris was deeply interested in the strength of the local art circles and other movements for the cultural development of the city.

Wants to Live to Vote Democratic

SEATTLE, Nov. 3 (AP).—James McDonald, eighty-three, had only one request when they took him to the city hospital. "Don't let me die until after Tuesday, so I can vote for Roosevelt," he pleaded.

Doctors assured him he would probably recover.

Endorsement Given by Six to One in British House of Commons

MEASURE GOES TO LORDS FOR DEBATE

LONDON, Nov. 3 (CP).—To the accompaniment of loud ministerial applause, the House of Commons tonight gave third reading to the Government's Ottawa Agreements Bill with a heavy majority of 348. The vote was 416 to 68.

The bill was then sent to the House of Lords.

Final hours of debate brought a renewed attack on the trade pact between the United Kingdom and the Dominions, concluded at the Ottawa Economic Conference by Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the free trade element of the Opposition.

Sir Herbert declared Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, himself, had been forced to contemplate the possibility of a changed Government in some one of the Dominions repudiating its agreement with the United Kingdom.

GOVERNMENT REPLY

Mr. Chamberlain replied for the Government that new Canadian duties, substituted by the Anglo-Canadian pact for existing duties, could not be altered within the next five years, except to a limited degree specified in the agreement.

The Chancellor agreed that Parliament had the right to do anything it liked, but added it was extremely unlikely to exercise those powers in the case of the agreement.

Referring obviously to the argument over preferential treatment of Canadian wheat, although he did not specifically mention wheat, he said that the bill followed the established procedure of customs regulations.

PASSAGE EXPECTED

Passage of the bill through the House of Lords was not expected to take very long.

The aim of the Government is to gain royal assent to the bill, making it law in time to bring its provisions into effect by November 15, when about two or three inches from his body. When she opened the door, she snatched up all the paper currency and moved toward the door, still keeping Mrs. Mercer covered. He did not touch the silver money.

URGES PROMPT SUBSCRIPTION

Sixty-Five Per Cent of New Canadian Loan Taken Up in Three Days

MONTREAL, Nov. 3 (CP).—The campaign for the subscription of Canada Loan enters upon its fifth day tomorrow, with subscriptions for the first three days amounting to 65 per cent of the objective, $50,000,000 out of a total of $80,000,000. Subscriptions reported for Wednesday from all parts of Canada added subscribed for the long-term bonds in the first two days, bringing this up to $27,000,000.

This leaves $28,000,000 still to be raised. The total of the long-term issue of $55,000,000. The short-term issue, $25,000,000, was oversubscribed on Monday.

EARLY COMPLETION URGED

Desirability that not only the loan be fully subscribed but that the total be raised promptly "as a renewed demonstration to the world at large, where Canada's credit has always stood high, of the ability of Canadians to meet their own financial problems and solve them in a realistic manner," was expressed in a message issued during the day by Sir Charles Gordon, chairman of the management committee.

In addition to subscriptions which have been received from all provinces, purchases are reported from Great Britain and the United States.

EARTHQUAKE IN SAN FRANCISCO

Sharp Shocks Cause Students to Rush From Classrooms—No Serious Damage

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3 (AP).—Earthquake tremors that frightened students into rushing from their classrooms shook the San Francisco Bay area and other points to as far south as Monterey and as far north as Pacific time today. Residents of Palo Alto, Redwood City and Santa Clara described the movements as sharp.

Plaster was cracked in some buildings in San Jose. That was the only damage reported, but pictures swung on their walls and buildings creaked in various places. Professor Perry Byerly, seismologist at the University of California, said the centre of the shock probably was near Santa Cruz, Gilroy and Salinas, south of here.

Conversion Loan Lists Are Closed

LONDON, Nov. 3 (AP).—So great was the rush of money for investment in the new $300,000,000 3 per cent conversion loan that the lists were closed at 12:15 today instead of remaining open all day as originally planned.

This loan is the final step in the Government's war loan conversion scheme begun last June by which the treasury saves about $38,000,000 a year in interest payments.

BANDIT ROBBS LOCAL STORE

Mrs. H. Mercer Threatened With Revolver—Man Escapes With $60

A bandit, armed with a revolver, held up Mercer's Handy Shop, corner of Hillside Avenue and Prior Street, at 9:30 o'clock last night and escaped with $60. Police, who arrived within ten minutes of the holdup, were unable to discover the man in the locality.

Mrs. H. Mercer and her seven-year-old daughter were the only occupants of the store when the thief entered and stood gazing at some magazines suspended from a wire above the counter nearest the door.

Mrs. Mercer was standing at the counter and looked down on it. She glanced down and saw printed in ink and pencil the following words:

"Don't speak or I will shoot and kill you with lead. Hand me your money, quick. Don't make a move."

COVERED BY REVOLVER

Mrs. Mercer, on seeing the card, moved toward the cash register, and as she did so, the man followed her, keeping a revolver pointed at her head about two or three inches from her body. When she opened the door, she snatched up all the paper currency and moved toward the door, still keeping Mrs. Mercer covered. He did not touch the silver money.

The Alberta Premier is suffering from a cold and is confined to the house. It was found impossible to replace his presence with one of his ministers.

Straw Vote Gives Roosevelt Lead in Forty-One States

Final Results Indicate Hoover Will Win Only 57 of 531 Electoral Votes—President Gains Slightly Since Semi-Final Returns

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP).—The Literary Digest announced tonight that on the basis of final returns its presidential poll for the approaching United States elections, Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic nominee, is leading President Herbert Hoover in forty-one states with a total popular vote of 1,715,789, in comparison with 1,150,398 for Hoover. The electoral vote is divided: Roosevelt 474, and Hoover 57.

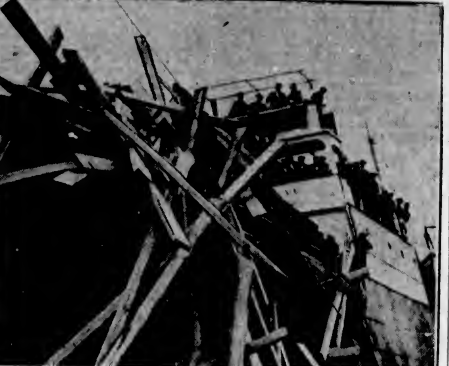

The summary, in part, of The Literary Digest follows: A grand total of 3,664,497 ballots were returned and tabulated. Of these, 1,715,739, or 55.59 per cent, are for Roosevelt, 1,150,398, or 31.53 per cent, for Hoover and 148,079, or 4.04 per cent, registered their sentiments for Norman Thomas, Socialist.

Hoover shows a slight gain from the 37.38 per cent of the total vote which he had in the semi-final returns.

"The final vote gives Hoover a lead in the seven states of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey.

Roosevelt leads his Republican rival in all of the other forty-one states."

Inquiry Demand In Senate Over Bagley Release

New Westminster Senator Attacks Method of Paroling Prisoners Convicted of Vicious Crimes—Hon. Arthur Meighen Admits Mistake in This Case but Defends System

OTTAWA, Nov. 3 (CP).—Alleged "lapses from observation of the act," and lack of attention on the part of the Minister of Justice to penitentiary affairs, formed the basis for a demand by Senator J. D. Taylor, Conservative, of that House to study the administration of Canada penal institutions.

"Wholesale jail deliveries" by free use of the ticket-of-leave system were charged by the British Columbia Senator, who instanced paroling of the case of notorious bank robber, Bagley, who repeated his depredations soon after release on ticket-of-leave.

DEFENDS DEPARTMENT

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Government leader of the Senate, defended the Department of Justice and declared that because the release of one criminal was not justified by his subsequent actions the whole system should not and could not be condemned.

It had become a practical rule that when a convict not guilty of a crime of violence had concluded half his normal sentence, he became eligible for parole, Senator Taylor said. The result was that tickets-of-leave were being granted to those whose freedom had not been contemplated under the act. Crimes of violence had been looked upon as constituting a bar to freedom on parole, but were now convicted of such crimes were getting their freedom.

BAGLEY'S RECORD

Bagley, the British Columbia bank bandit, had, in company with several companions, conducted an armed robbery of a Nanaimo bank. He was caught and sentenced to ten years in penitentiary. Five years later he was released on ticket-of-leave.

HERRIOT GIVEN PARTY SUPPORT

French Premier Defends Budget and Disarmament Policies

TOULOUSE, France, Nov. 3 (CP).—Responding to criticism by minority spokesmen, Premier Edouard Herriot vigorously defended his budget and disarmament policies tonight before the convention of his Radical Socialist party, and was accorded what amounted to a unanimous vote for endorsement.

The Premier took the floor unexpectedly after Deputy Gaston Bergery, one of the leaders of the militant wing of the party, had declared "no one in the world thinks any longer that intergovernmental debts will be paid" and had accused the French Government of failing to give a proper reception to the disarmament plan of President Herriot.

REQUIRES DEEP STUDY

The Hoover plan, the Premier replied, required deep study—a fact appreciated by the United States disarmament delegates themselves, with whom the French worked "continually in amicable collaboration."

He defended the new arms plan France is presenting at Geneva and declared that the Government would not dissociate security from disarmament. There was no mention of war debts in his speech.

The party platform of general policies was adopted unanimously, an action regarded as complete endorsement of the Herriot ministry.

WHEAT WORTH LESS THAN TARIFF RATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (CP).—Unprecedented in United States annals, the golden grain, wheat, was worth less on the market today than the amount of the tariff designed to protect it from foreign competition.

When prices plunged their lowest in Chicago, December contract wheat for future delivery was a fraction less than the 42-cent per bushel tariff rate.

ONE MAN STRANGLED; ANOTHER BEATEN TO DEATH ON UNION ST.

Unidentified Victims of Foul Play Found in Different Parts of City—Battered Body Discovered on Veranda by Woman—Remains of Chinese Lay Near Langara Golf Links

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3 (CP).—Two death mysteries in Vancouver were under investigation by city police tonight following the finding today of two bodies of men, as yet unidentified, who are believed by the police to have been victims of foul play.

Early today the body of an unknown man was discovered on the veranda of a Union Street house with his head crushed in, as if by a blow from a budgeon of some sort. The second mystery developed late this afternoon with the finding of the body of a Chinese in the bushes west of the Langara golf links, in the South Vancouver district. The man had been dead about three days, and officers who investigated are of the opinion that marks on the neck and body indicate he had been strangled to death.

NO IDENTIFICATION

At a late hour tonight efforts to establish identification of the victims had failed.

The Chinese was a man of about thirty years of age. The body was clad in a blue suit, made by a Chinese tailor, and police are working on this clue to obtain identification.

The head of the man found dead at the Union Street house was terribly battered. There was a depression one-eighth of an inch deep and two inches long on the head, two abrasions over the left eye and two on the left knee.

FOUND BY WOMAN

The body was discovered by Mrs. Selma Selving, Union Street, who awakened Mrs. Selma Selving, occupant of the house. Mrs. Bernardino declared she had never seen the man and knew nothing of the circumstances leading to his death.

The man was between fifty and fifty-five, was 5 feet 6 inches tall, with blue eyes, grey hair and sandy eyebrows. He was wearing a blue striped jacket and vest, grey striped trousers, blue shirt, heavy black shoes and a dirty brown cap.

MAN ATTACKED WHEN HUNTING

PORT ANGELES, Nov. 3 (AP).—A rib deflected a bullet which struck Chris Woods, forty-seven, a hunter, over the heart in a shooting affray in the woods west of here last night. Physicians said today, and probably saved his life. The bullet came out of his back.

Today his alleged assailant, F. C. Garrett, was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Garrett, in reporting the shooting, police said, declared that he had been set upon and beaten by three men he discovered killing elk, and that he pulled a revolver, fired at one of them, hitting Woods.

Woods, however, police added, said he had been shot without warning and there had been no quarrel.

BIG CO-OPERATIVE SCHEME LAUNCHED

LONDON, Nov. 3 (CP).—The biggest scheme for co-operative production and marketing of primary products ever attempted has been launched by the establishment today of the Empire Farmers' Co-op. Limited. Many prominent agriculturalists are to be members of the control board, of which Lord Strathely, prominent member of the House of Lords, is chairman. It is understood the organization is commencing with a large capital.

Operations are already beginning with the society, whose aims are defined as to control as far as possible the production of foodstuffs throughout the Empire in order to stabilize prices to producer and consumer, and to supply him with a sure market at from 20 to 25 per cent above the present price level.

The speech by the Prime Minister at this ceremony is one in which he traditionally reviews the international situation.

The official version was that the doctor's advice was in consideration of the increasing pressure of Mr. MacDonald's work and necessity of care for his health.

Ransom Brings Return of Bonds Stolen From Bank

COLFAX, Wash., Nov. 3 (AP).—Bonds valued at $63,280, stolen from the First Savings & Trust Bank here by bandits armed with machine guns on September 21, were back in the vaults today.

Clive Roberts, cashier, who was one of ten employees made to lie on the floor while the bandits rifled the vault of the bonds and more than $10,000 in cash, said the securities were ransomed through an intermediary by a Seattle insurance company. Only $500 in Liberty bonds were missing, Roberts said.

Roberts said he was not advised how the recovery was effected.

The sheriff's office was advised by Sheriff W. I. Dalley, who has been investigating at Seattle and Tacoma since Sunday, that "there is some prospect of capturing" two of the four men involved in the sensational holdup.

Three men armed with submachine guns strode into the bank just before closing time and ordered sixteen employees and customers to lie on the floor. They scooped currency into bags and stripped the vault of the negotiable securities. Then they fled in an automobile driven by a confederate.

EXPLAINS VALUE OF SPECTROSCOPE

J. A. Pearce Addresses Astronomical Society Members on Part Played by Light

The part played in the study of the stars by the spectroscopic method was made evident to members of the Victoria branch of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada at its meeting last evening when J. A. Pearce took the subject of this address. Reviewing the historical part of the record the speaker showed how the use of a slit of light admitted so as to fall upon a prism and passing through the latter was made to throw the various colors of the rainbow in their order and played a most important part in the study of the stars.

It was found later that the spectra was crossed by numerous lines and by means of a large number of lantern views the lecturer was able to show how the study of the stars was thus carried on.

The attendance at the meeting was a large one and on the conclusion of the address a number of questions were asked of the speaker.

Before the conclusion a hearty vote of thanks was accorded him for his information. This was followed by him by the president, P. H. Hughes.

Before the lecture of the evening a short illustrated address was given by W. F. Holdridge, of the Astrophysical Observatory, on the constellation Cygnus.

PREMIER BENNETT FLAYS OPPONENTS

In reply to Liberals who argued Sir Wilfrid gave his preference freely, he cited the words of the great Liberal chief, Mr. Wilfrid Laurier, who had said: "I would not have been a Liberal for anything but the fact that I am a Canadian."

At that time, in 1897, the Premier went on, the Conservative party believed such advantages should not be given without something in return.

To that policy they had adhered ever since until now when a preference in favor of Canada had been obtained.

Sir Wilfrid's hopes had not been realized, Mr. Bennett continued, but at the Imperial Conference of 1902 the Canadian Government again took up the question and the conference agreed upon a formula which called for the raising of duties against foreign goods subject to duty and the imposition of duties against foreign goods then free in order to afford a preference.

The same Liberal party which had protested against affording preferences by raising duties rather than by lowering them.

The Canadian ministers attending the 1902 conference went further, said Mr. Bennett. They submitted a memorandum pointing out large industries had grown up in Canada as a result of the tariff, which had to be considered in many revisions of duties.

"Where now are the little minds that in the past three weeks shrieked against the manufacturing interests?" asked the Premier.

After coming into office, Mr. King had attended the 1923 Imperial Conference in London with Sir Lomer Gouin and Rt. Hon. George F. G. Graham and the other Canadian delegates.

The change in attitude of the Liberals was inconceivable, the Prime Minister continued.

Mr. Bennett read statements made by Mr. King at the 1923 conference in respect to definite suggestions of a British preference for Canadian imports made by British Government delegates.

Mr. King had said of the proposed preferences that they would be "received with appreciation in Canada."

"He called those proposals 'a welcome overture' then," said Mr. Bennett. "Now they are the Dead March in Baul."

Mr. King (then Prime Minister) had proceeded to mention those Canadian products on which a preference would be welcomed. These were, in order of importance, wheat, fruit, fresh fruit, including apples, pears, peaches and plums; cheese, butter, eggs, bacon and ham; canned fruits and vegetables, and fish, lumber products and newsprint.

"To hear the Liberal party, after that, denounce duties, is to wonder what their policy is and what direction they are travelling in," declared Mr. Bennett, amid cheers of his followers. "It would seem," he continued, "that the Liberal party has changed its mind and that the honorable member for Winnipeg (Mr. Woodworth) is now their directing genius."

NEW OFFICERS OF POST INSTALLED

Recently-Elected Leaders of Native Sons of Canada Assembly Given Office

Officers-elect of Victoria Post No. 1, Native Sons of Canada, were installed into their various posts at an interesting ceremony in the New Thought Hall last night.

The installation was performed by Lieut.-Col. Donald McGowan, past national president; Arthur C. Pike, past provincial president; J. McDowell, past president; and Hugh W. Creelman, past president.

Those receiving office were: Alex. McLeod, president; D. McLennan, first vice-president; J. Baron, second vice-president; A. Scourrah, treasurer; R. Don Smith, P.P., financial secretary; R. D. MacLellan, recording secretary; J. McDowell, chaplain; Rex Askey, sergeant-at-arms; J. Laurison, inner guard; Cyril Gordon, outer guard; J. Jones, historian.

Following the installation, Reginald Hayward, M.P.P., immediately past president, gave a talk to members of the Assembly and the Canadian Daughters' League on his recent trip to England, Ireland and France, describing beauties of various historical points he visited, and general conditions in Ireland and England.

Chinese Suffers Fractured Leg in Unusual Accident

Sam Kee, Chinese laundryman, of 637 Discovery Street, sustained a compound fracture of the leg when struck by a pile driver in an unusual accident which occurred on Beach Drive yesterday at noon.

Kee had stopped his truck on the hill on Beach Drive, east of the Poul Bay car terminus, and was preparing to deliver a bundle of laundry when the machine started back.

He was unable to get clear in time and was struck in the leg, receiving a compound fracture.

First aid was rendered by W. S. Mitchell and J. J. Hainwood, nearby residents, after which Kee was removed to the Jubilee Hospital by a youth, where he was attended by Dr. E. W. Book.

INQUIRY DEMAND IN SENATE OVER BAGLEY RELEASE

my understanding is that the law should require reports to be made to Parliament covering these releases."

Bagley was at liberty several months when he appeared with an armed band at Harrison Hot Springs Hotel, sixty miles from Vancouver. They held up the night staff, and robbed the safe, escaping in an automobile. The gang lived up two bridges to prevent pursuit.

Arrested in the United States, Bagley was brought back by the Provincial Police and escaped. A policeman who attempted to apprehend him was shot four times. About a month ago he was again arrested in the United States for a crime in California and sentenced to fifteen years.

The case, and the hazards to officers of the law arising from the release of dangerous criminals on ticket-of-leave, had prompted him to bring up the matter in the House, Senator Taylor said. These lapses from the act on the part of the Department of Justice indicated what might almost be termed "studied disregard of duty," he said.

NO DISCRIMINATION

The act did not discriminate against crimes and providing for tickets-of-leave, Senator Meighen declared, and the Governor-General-in-Council was quite within the act in releasing Bagley. There was no question about it being a mistake, but that fact should not condemn the whole system.

Social standing of the convict had never entered into consideration in the granting of paroles, Senator Meighen continued, and certainly had not been true in the case of Bagley, who was apparently just "an ordinary crook."

The act provided that reports should be made to Parliament covering the release of criminals on ticket-of-leave, but no details of the circumstances in each case. Obviously, Senator Meighen said, he kept secret, Senator Meighen said.

QUESTION ACCUSED

Yesterday morning city detectives and Provincial Police officers questioned the trio in connection with the Monday night robberies in Nanaimo. It was learned that they had come from Nanaimo two days ago, but the police were unable to ascertain where they had taken lodgings in the city.

The trio will be subjected to further questioning today. In the meantime Nanaimo police are working on the case from their end and Provincial Police are working on another case in Vancouver of which one of the men is suspected. It was learned at police headquarters.

Last Monday the Imperial Oil Company's safe, Nanaimo, was blown open and $106 stolen. On the same night $300 worth of merchandise was taken from a store and an automobile also stolen.

VISITS FORMER WARTIME UNIT

Col. J. L. Biggar Speaks to
No. 13 Field Ambulance
at Armories

Colonel J. L. Biggar, national commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross, who is at present a visitor in the city, visited the Armories on Tuesday evening and inspected and addressed the officers, noncommissioned officers and other members of No. 13 Field Ambulance.

The special interest of the occasion was that Colonel Biggar, who before the war was living in Victoria, recruited and took overseas the famous No. 13 Field Ambulance, which was the progenitor of the unit of the same name here which is commanded by Colonel (Dr.) M. W. Thomas.

The present unit comprises a personnel of thirty-five officers and other units. It meets every Tuesday evening at the Armories, where lectures are carried out by the officers. Colonel Thomas, Captain E. G. Kenning, Captain A. B. Nash and Lieut. Harold Davenport. Colonel Biggar's remarks were in the nature of reminiscences of the original war-time unit in France, and he paid glowing tribute to the splendid esprit de corps which prevailed, expressing the hope that this tradition would prevail. He presented the unit with a large photograph of the war-time unit as it appeared in France and also as it appeared when embarking at Victoria. These pictures will be placed on the walls of the training corps at the Armories, where eventually it is hoped to have pictures of all the commanding officers also.

JAPAN'S SIDE IS PRESENTED

Teruo Hachiya, Consul at Vancouver, Deals With Manchurian Question

In presenting the case of Japan in the Manchurian question before the Rotary Club yesterday Teruo Hachiya, Japanese Consul at Vancouver, expressed his pleasure at having the opportunity of clearing up some points respecting what he described as "the mal-intended propaganda" which had been put forth.

The speaker alluded to those who regarded themselves as "the only pacifists in this quarrelsome world of ours" and who held opinion that Japan had launched on an Imperial policy of conquest. He quoted from The New York Times as follows: "Although Japan has had good cause in many instances, and is entitled to stand up for her treaty rights, yet she has made a great mistake in not displaying a more wholesome respect for the rights of mankind, which should have led her to explain and justify her position in the face of hostile criticism."

With this in mind, he said, he met a representative gathering like the Rotary Club and present a few of the highlights on the problem.

SEPARATE FROM CHINA

Dealing with the historic situation, the consul pointed out that Manchuria was no way an integral part of China and was not even regarded as such by the Chinese themselves. Manchuria was inhabited by the tribe called Manchus, while China belonged to the race of Han. The difference between them was as marked as that between the Anglo-Saxon and the Latin of the West.

The Manchus had become the rulers of China. Up to 1907 Chinese were forbidden to emigrate to Manchuria. He recalled the fact that the Russians in Manchuria and Mongolia, which China was unable to check. This constituted a menace to Japan; the territory of Manchuria in the hands of a hostile power would have constituted a dagger pointed at the heart of Japan. There was no alternative for Japan but to fight.

DOING WORLD DUTY

In the war that followed Japan won and had the full sympathy of many world powers, including Great Britain and Canada. In spite of the sacrifices made, Japan received as compensation only the unexpected portion of the twenty-five-year lease of Kwantung territory and the rights of the South Manchuria Railway.

Had Russia been victorious the problem today would be to keep the Far East out of control of Communist Russia, including Japan, China and even India.

Since the time of the Russo-Japanese War his country had done marvels in the development of Manchuria. In 1915 a treaty was entered into between Japan and China, under which was defined the scope of the economic activities of Japan in that territory. Now China contended the treaty was invalid as it was extracted by force. If this was a correct view then treaties like that of Versailles were not enforceable. With the opening of the free port of Dairen in Manchuria by Japan the trade of that country had increased sixteen times.

TOLD OF BOYCOTTS

Dealing with the policy pursued by the Nationalist Party since the taking over of power on the creation of the Republic of China, the speaker alluded to the boycotts practised. The boycott had been tried on the United States which asked for the support of other powers. Later Great Britain had fallen under the boycott and sent a military force to Shanghai to suppress the agitation. More recently it had been aimed against Japan alone. This boycott was not a unified expression of the Chinese population for patriotic purposes, but was enforced by a small group of political leaders. Rodney Gilbert, an internationalist, had said "the use of the boycott weapon should be classed in the same category as poisoned gas."

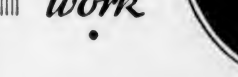

The contention had been made, "I had rather an experience yesterday. Going home from a school inspection I met a boy who said a baby was dying. In my car I forced the river, which was nearly frozen, and then climbed for miles up a long, steep mountain track in low gear. Arriving, I worked with the baby, who had pneumonia. The parents are Russians. They are living in a little shack where the heat was terrific, nearly 100°. They thought I was killing the baby when I insisted on some fresh air. Finally I took the baby to Pouce Coupe hospital. What a blessing the hospital is there. On the way back at 2 a.m. I was called in to another case, a child who had been badly bitten by a husky. His throat was lacerated and half an ear had been torn off. I gave him first aid and went back to the hospital with him. What a night! It was over forty below zero."

RALPH WALTERS SETS UP ALIBI

Former U.S. Financier Continues Fight Against Extradition

Ralph W. Walters, former vice-president of the Bankers' Holding Corporation, which, prior to the stock crash in 1930 controlled four banks in the State of Washington, yesterday set up an alibi in his defence against extradition to the United States to face trial on charges of grand larceny.

The former financier, whose activities in stocks ran close to the $3,000,000 mark, declared to Judge Eber S. Lampman, extradition commissioner, that he was not in Portland, Oregon, and referred to a pocket memorandum showing an entry for expenses of the trip from Auburn to Portland on that date.

Eber H. Wind, a boyhood friend of Mr. Walters, testified he accompanied Mr. Walters on that trip and fixed the date as the opening of a shareholders' convention, which he attended.

MISSING LEAF

C. L. Harrison, counsel for the State of Washington, called the attention of the court to the fact that a leaf of the memorandum book directly adjoining that on which the Portland trip entry was made was missing.

Mr. Walters remarked there were other leaves missing from the book.

That was the principal feature of yesterday's hearing which was adjourned at 3 o'clock at the request of Stuart Henderson, counsel for Mr. Walters, until next Monday afternoon when two more witnesses will be called for the defence.

Mr. Henderson's motion for adjournment was opposed by Mr. Harrison, but was allowed by Judge Lampman after a defence counsel had stated the two witnesses were highly important. One, it was claimed, will be a former assistant attorney general of the State of Washington, who is now on his way to Victoria.

Ralph Walters and his father, Charles E. Walters, were apprehended by city police officers here in September on United States warrants charging grand larceny. Charles E. Walters has been ordered extradited to the American authorities.

CHARGES FRAUDS

The charge upon which the two former financiers are wanted arises out of transactions of the Bankers' Holding Corporation, which operated in Seattle and Auburn, Wash., in 1930. The warrant alleges that they sold $2,450 worth of stock in the corporation to Merton J. Moses and his wife by false pretences, in that they claimed that the corporation "owned" four state banks when they had only controlling interest. A considerable amount of the bank stock obtained by the corporation had been pledged with outside banks for loans, it is alleged.

The failure of one of the banks in the corporation's charge forced the Holding Corporation into bankruptcy in 1930. The Walters remained in the United States until they came to Victoria late in 1931.

POPPIES WILL BE SOLD TOMORROW

Remembrance Day Committee to Raise Funds to Aid Disabled
War Veterans

Poppies, which throughout the Empire are recognized as tokens of remembrance, will be sold on the streets of Victoria tomorrow under the auspices of the Remembrance Day committee.

Funds raised through this means are used for disabled soldiers and their dependents. Twelve veterans are regularly employed at the Red Cross Workshops making wreaths and poppies for sale throughout British Columbia.

Last year, 500 persons in Victoria and district were given assistance from the fund which is created through the sale of poppies.

No help is given until a thorough investigation is made and in no case is money supplied. Assistance is given in the form of food supplies, clothing, medical attention, glasses for dangerously defective sight and other justifiable relief.

The committee is appealing for liberal support tomorrow. No price is set for the small linen poppy, but all citizens are asked to give as generously as their means will permit.

DIED YESTERDAY

At St. Joseph's Hospital on November 3, the death occurred in his eighteenth year, of George William, eldest son of Frank T. Bayley, 3177 Orilla Street. Born in Victoria, he is survived here by his parents, two sisters and two brothers. The remains rest at Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel, from where the funeral will take place at 2 p.m. proceeding to St. Mark's Church at 2:30 o'clock Monday. Rev. O. L. Jull will officiate and interment will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

AT ROSS BAY

The funeral service will be held on Saturday, November 5, at 2 o'clock at Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel, for the late Thomas Brooker, Rev. Canon Nunn officiating. Interment will be made at Ross Bay Cemetery.

CHINESE WAR FILM SHOWN

Preview of Actual Battle
Scenes Thrilling—Public
Showing Wednesday

At a cost of $7,000, leaders of Victoria's Little China are bringing to this city a fine thousand feet of motion picture film depicting the two major battles and several minor engagements connected with what has become known as the Battle of Shanghai, which several months ago engaged the attention of statesmen and political leaders throughout the world.

The film is to be shown at the Empire Theatre next Wednesday, for the benefit of the general public, a group of Chinese citizens having rented the theatre for the occasion.

ACTUAL SCENES

The film are actual recordings of the warfare, being a series of actual character. The only revision that has been made is that dealing with sequences showing sights too gruesome for public view.

A preview of the picture was given yesterday, at which Chinese leaders were present. The film is divided into four parts. The first part shows the two-day defence put up by the Chinese against the invading Japanese army. The second part depicts actual fighting, manoeuvring, air battles and naval bombardments. This section of the film includes the battles of Mao Heng Chen and Wen Chao Peng.

BOMBARDMENT SHOWN

Owing to the intensity of the bombardment on Woosung Fort, the camera men were unable to secure pictures of the famous attack on this stronghold and the thirty-two-day defence put up by the Chinese garrison. Some shots of the bombardment are shown, however.

The third part shows General Shidihara reviewing his Japanese troops, and the Japanese warships in the Yangtze River. The fourth and last part shows the memorial services and Oriental rites held in honor of those who fell on active service. The Chinese casualties in the various engagements totaled approximately 7,000, of which 2,800 were Cantonese. The majority of Chinese residing in Victoria are from Canton.

CAMERAMEN KILLED

Shooting of this war picture cost two lives, and required nine cameramen to face greater dangers than the soldiers themselves, it was stated.

They are by far the most thrilling pictures of the Chinese-Japanese conflict that have been brought to this city, and are the first to be shown here of the actual fighting.

All previous pictures have been taken in and around Shanghai, where the fighting was of a desultory character compared with the two major engagements at Mao Heng Chen and Wen Chao Peng. The motion picture will be run continuously from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. Wednesday. An interpreter will be on the stage to translate the subtitles to Victoria audiences. The picture takes an hour and a half to run off.

FUNERAL SATURDAY

The remains of Amelia Walton are resting at Haywards B.C. Funeral Chapel, where the funeral service will be conducted at 3:15 on Saturday. Rev. Robert Connell officiating. Interment will be made at Royal Oak Burial Park.

Its Better and You can Prove it

Borden's
ST. CHARLES MILK

There is a great difference in evaporated milks. Insist on Borden's St. Charles. It's the best by every test.

There are good reasons why Borden's St. Charles is the best of all evaporated milks. First, every herd that supplies Borden's is rigidly inspected. Every dairy is supervised—by Borden's own milk experts.

Second, the milk itself is tested. Colour, flavour, purity, cream content, are all carefully checked. Not one quart gets by unless it meets the exacting Borden standard.

Third, sixty per cent. of the natural water is removed, giving you concentrated milk more than twice as rich as average fluid milk.

Fourth, it is sterilized after being sealed in the cans, safeguarding your health, and bringing you the purest milk obtainable.

In coffee or tea, and for better results in cooking—insist upon Borden's St. Charles, and make sure that you get it.

TRY THESE THREE TESTS
and prove for yourself that
ST. CHARLES is better!

1. Open a can of Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk. Note the creamy color—the smooth consistency—the pure fresh flavor.

2. Heat a cup of coffee with Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk to "cream" it. St. Charles blends in smoothly, tastes fresh and rich.

3. Make cream sauce with Borden's St. Charles. That more fresh St. Charles flavor gives greater deliciousness.

MADE IN CANADA

It's Better
and You can Prove it

Borden's
ST. CHARLES MILK

There is a great difference in evaporated milks. Insist on Borden's St. Charles. It's the best by every test.

There are good reasons why Borden's St. Charles is the best of all evaporated milks. First, every herd that supplies Borden's is rigidly inspected. Every dairy is supervised—by Borden's own milk experts.

Second, the milk itself is tested. Colour, flavour, purity, cream content, are all carefully checked. Not one quart gets by unless it meets the exacting Borden standard.

Third, sixty per cent. of the natural water is removed, giving you concentrated milk more than twice as rich as average fluid milk.

Fourth, it is sterilized after being sealed in the cans, safeguarding your health, and bringing you the purest milk obtainable.

In coffee or tea, and for better results in cooking—insist upon Borden's St. Charles, and make sure that you get it.

TRY THESE THREE TESTS
and prove for yourself that
ST. CHARLES is better!

1. Open a can of Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk. Note the creamy color—the smooth consistency—the pure fresh flavor.

2. Heat a cup of coffee with Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk to "cream" it. St. Charles blends in smoothly, tastes fresh and rich.

3. Make cream sauce with Borden's St. Charles. That more fresh St. Charles flavor gives greater deliciousness.

CIRCULATING MONEY

When comment is made about the hesitancy of people in spending in these latter days, the inevitable reply is that under present conditions there is very little money to spend. That is true, in a sense, but there is another side to the picture which is seen in the rising volume of money in the savings banks. There is unquestionably a large amount of money available for distribution in the channels of trade, but it is withheld because of mental uncertainty about the future. It is that very uncertainty that is tending to prolong a depression, which in varying degrees, has lasted for some three years.

There is some food for thought afforded by a brochure written by Mr. H. G. Seward, the head of a well-known advertising firm in Britain. He alludes to what he calls "virtually a buyers' strike," and he urges British manufacturers to do everything humanly possible to induce the public to buy more freely. He shows, through statistics, that the chief method to offer this inducement is advertising which has been proved successful in the period of depression. He proves by charts that money-wage reductions have not kept pace with the fall in the cost of living, and that, therefore, the purchasing power of the people (in Britain) has actually risen. It is axiomatic that any increase in outlays on ordinary requirements would stimulate industry and aid employment. There is no question as to a percentage of the people that is in distressed circumstances. There is a much larger percentage that has money which is being hoarded instead of being turned into the ordinary channels of domestic trade. By inference, the people as a whole are, at least in part, to blame for the aggravation of the problem of unemployment. Mr. Seward describes the attitude of the average consumer as follows:

"People's inclination, naturally but mistakenly, has been to economize, when what the country needed was that they should spend more freely and more confidently, particularly on home-manufactured goods. The argument that increased savings are desirable because the deposits of the small man provide capital for industry does not hold good in the present situation. There is no shortage in the supply of capital available for industry, if industry could only employ it. Where there is a shortage is in the demand for the products of industry. Among company reports that appeared during 1932 no fewer than 313 out of a batch of 1,694 recently analyzed showed an increase in profits over those of the previous year; while a further 139 showed a negligible decline (less than one-tenth) in profits. Of the 452 companies, the profits of which increased or showed a negligible decline, 311, or nearly 70 per cent are advertisers; while of the other companies—the 1,212 the profits of which diminished 10 per cent, or more—two out of every three are non-advertisers."

"DISARMAMENT"

There is a very clear appreciation of how Britain has reduced her expenditures on armaments while other nations have increased theirs in the last six years, shown by statistics and graphs in the 1932 special edition of the Armaments Year Book issued by the League of Nations. In this is a table of the gross world expenditures on national defence for the years 1925-1930 expressed in terms of millions of dollars. According to the figures, as illustrated by graphs, the world expenditure on armaments increased from a little over $3,400,000,000 in 1925 to $4,128,000,000 in 1930. In the same period Britain's expenditures for armaments decreased from $110,000,000 to $94,900,000.

Of all countries Britain is perhaps the only one that has really made a genuine attempt to reduce armaments. It may be doubted if she can, in justice to her security and the safety of the Empire, continue to make unappreciated gestures in this particular since all such gestures are seized upon as an excuse for other nations to attempt to approximate their own defences to those which Britain regards as essential to Imperial security. So far promotion of disarmament has added expenditures of over $700,000,000 to the cost of armaments.

FUTURE OF THE DOLLAR

The selling movement in Wall Street and the decline of the dollar on the gold currencies are explained as due to European selling and foreign doubts about the position of the United States in view of the prospects of a Democratic victory on November 8. What is not known is the character of the programme on which the Democrats would embark if elected to power. It is expected, however, that it would be more "expansionist" than the reconstruction activities of the Hoover Administration.

The Manchester Guardian Commercial has been commenting on the future of the dollar as a result of recent developments. It points out that President Hoover has created a note of alarm by his statement that during the period of heavy withdrawals of gold from New York the United States was "within a fortnight" of coming off the gold standard. The claim now made is that the American banking system is free from the danger of a sudden liquidation of foreign short-term obligations, since foreigners have already reduced their short-term assets in that country to the minimum required for ordinary trade purposes. The same claim, however, was made a year ago.

The point emphasized by The Manchester Guardian Commercial is that "while the United States money market may be adequately liquid, judged by the margin of gold available for any foreseeable foreign demand, it remains true that many of the banks have large amounts of 'frozen assets,' while the budgetary position is itself insecure, and if for any reason internal depositors began again to mistrust the stability of their banks or the national finance, a domestic night from the dollar might be a natural sequel. Such a reason might be given by the adoption of a strong expansionist programme by a new Administration."

As opposed to fears in the direction noted, it is significant that the budget position of the United States has recently shown an improved trend. The current advances made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation have of late been equalled by current repayments of old loans. At the same time, however, the demands by banks, the principal customers of the Finance Corporation, for assistance have dropped by one-half. Since February 2 the Corporation has loaned $1,182,000,000 for business and agricultural purposes, and an additional $34,000,000 for the relief of distress in twenty-five States up to the end of September. Of the commercial loans of the Corporation, $998,000,000 are still outstanding, and there is a poor prospect of any early repayment of a large proportion of them. The Corporation is financed by the Treasury, and hence the liquidity of its loans is a matter of importance. Since those loans have a poor prospect of early repayment in large measure there is criticism that "the Administration has become a receivership organization for innumerable insolvent corporations." It is this feature which is affecting the future of the dollar because of foreign fears about the stability of the financial position in the United States.

LIQUOR CONTROL IN FINLAND

Finland's experiment with Government control of liquor as opposed to Prohibition is working out well. In the second quarter under the new law there has been less drinking than in the corresponding quarter of last year and 600 fewer arrests for inebriety. There has, as well, been a decrease in illegal importation, production and sale of alcohol. Because "bootlegging" has been reduced there has been a falling off in crime generally. Under Prohibition, when "bootlegging" was rampant, a murder wave swept the country. In the second quarter of 1931 there were ninety-two cases of murder and manslaughter. The figure for the same quarter this year was sixty. There has also been a decrease in assault cases.

In Finland the proponents of Prohibition are now expressing a readiness to admit the advantages of the new system. They have compromised in their desire for absolute Prohibition. There have been prohibitory days inscribed on the calendar as a sop to the desire of the Prohibitionists. The latter, however, realize that such days have meant a continuance of illicit traffic in liquors, and so Parliament has been asked to reduce those prohibitory days from 183 to six. Obviously liquor control is working to the desire of the people of Finland, in that it has promoted a greater measure of temperance than prevailed under Prohibition.

Latest statistics show declines in the number of births, deaths and marriages in the Dominion. In September in fifty-two cities there were 6,399 births, 3,421 deaths and 2,787 marriages. These figures compare with 7,099 births, 3,674 deaths and 3,187 marriages in September of last year. Thus there has been a decrease of 9½ per cent in births, 6½ per cent in deaths and 13 per cent in marriages.

"THE SPIRIT-FILLED LIFE"

(Prayer for the Oxford Group Movement, adapted from the poem bearing the above title, by H. W. Miller.)

O sweep through my soul like the waves of the sea;
O sweeten my life, and keep me from care;
O guide me and bless me in answer to prayer;
Make me to be led of the Lord everywhere.

O purge out my sins with the fire from above;
Be first in my thoughts, take all of my love;
Make God's service my choice, make sacrifice sweet;
Let me do God's will by my drink and my meat;
Let me run at His bidding with glad eager feet.

O free me from self, from all of my greed,
Help me to hasten to avenge my brother in need;
As a soldier of Christ, let me hardness endure,
Make my hope in my Lord everlasting and sure.
Grant me patience and meekness; be tender and pure.

As a prince grant me power in prayer to prevail;
Let the blessing be mine, for His word cannot fail;
Let me walk with my Lord, and be led all the way;
Let me glorify Him till He calls me away.

Note and Comment

By R. H. D.

I see the right, and I approve it too.
I condemn the wrong, and yet the wrong
Persuades.

—Burton (possibly).

It really is a pity that, as we suggested some weeks ago, someone in authority could not take Miss Macphail by the hand and give her in marriage to Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King. What a woman! Also what a man! And what a couple they would have made! If joined together they could have lifted up their voices in sweet concord in exaltation of the principles of free trade and in denunciation of the vices of preferential trade.

But there seems to be no hope whatever of that desirable union being consummated. Destiny apparently has decreed that the twain shall travel the weary journey of a single and political, in a state of single-mindedness, and that the people of Canada shall be compelled. If they listen to political speeches at all, to incline their unwilling ears to the "miserable wails" of the male and female wanderers in the wilderness of disappointed political ambitions.

Mr. King can see no ray of hope for the people of Canada in the policy of Imperial preferential trade. His ambitions were blighted when the electors of the country rejected the Dunning Budget. His feelings were hurt when Mr. Dunning declared recently that he had rejected the leader of the opposition and all his works.

Miss Macphail has no bowels of compassion to be moved as she contemplates the alleged tribulations of the people of Canada. She is interested only in the farmers of Canada. So in the interests of the farmers of Canada she has made another of her many imperative but impractical demands. She has demanded that all national debts be cancelled and has joined with the United Grain Growers in demanding that all tariffs be cancelled. If those two extreme measures were possible, the effect upon the business of Canada would probably be something like the action of a double-edged sword in a conflict of another kind—it would cut both ways and inflict casualties upon more than one side.

If tariffs were cancelled, the result would be confusion, if not chaos, in the business of Canada, and it is hard to see in what way it would improve the business of the grain-growers. Cancellation of the Canadian tariffs would not open a single market that is close to the agricultural products of Canada, but it would open the Canadian markets to the agricultural products of all other countries—and there are some countries not very remote from Canada which are flooded to their boundaries with agricultural produce which cannot at the present time find remunerative markets.

The plea of the grain-growers is that as a result of tariffs there is not a just balance between what the farmers have to pay for the goods they need and the products they have to sell. Hence they want the balance adjusted by the adoption of some mysterious measures which will "usher in" what they describe as an era of general cheapness. They believe that if there were no tariffs there would be such an era. That is what the economists describe as deflation. But it seems to us in our ignorance of the profound ramifications of business that the process of deflation has been going on for two or three years, and that things never have been so cheap as they are at the present time.

Hence it is reasonable to argue that prosperity for the grain-growers or for anybody else cannot be attained by deflation. In fact, competent business authorities maintain that the process of deflation already has gone too far, and that there can be no hope for prosperity in the future except by a process of inflation. In other words, it is not the balance between cheapness and dearth in certain lines of business which must be adjusted, but the balance between supply and demand which must be corrected.

The abolition of Canadian tariffs would not do that, but it assuredly would flood Canadian markets with products of foreign factories and close up thousands of Canadian factories, and, as we already have said, if would not open the markets of a single foreign country to Canadian wheat or any other products of Canadian farms. In a vital matter of this kind, it is conditions, not theories, that must be considered. Miss Macphail, professing to represent the United Farmers of Ontario, may feel to despise the domestic markets as of little value and the markets of Great Britain as of even less value, but those markets are surely better than no markets at all. Cancellation of Canadian tariffs would not establish the principle of free trade or open a single port in the United States.

MUNICIPALITIES WILL BE AIDED

Maximum Allowance for Families Will Be Proposed Shortly

British Columbia municipalities to be aided by the payment of their relief bills in the next two months by the Provincial Government will pay $5.50 per cent on these loans and will not handle the cash, it was made clear at the Legislative Buildings yesterday. Instead, the cities will be asked to send in their relief vouchers, which will be paid by the Province, from funds it has in turn borrowed from the Dominion Government, at interest.

Approximately twenty-five municipalities out of seventy-eight in the province may have to be helped in this manner during November and December, it was explained. Twenty-one municipalities have already applied, and ten of these have been assured of assistance, including Burnaby, Fernie, Prince Rupert, North Vancouver City, North Vancouver District, Port Moody, Prince George, Trail, Port Couillard, and Port Alberni.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

By Ely Culbertson
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A LONG SHOT
Although very often, due to the fact that you are not able to read declarer's hand perfectly, you cannot put up the best defence, you may be able to do so to an alternative, because you have outguessed the declarer, who has set him at his contract. If you have your wits about you to make an unusual play, although possibly not good enough to deceive an astute opponent, it may be able to put one over on a less wide-awake and clever declarer.

The hand below illustrates a very remarkable play, which was a winning one and which would win against probably the majority of opponents. It should not be against a really intelligent bridge player, however.

Karn, of New York City, made the natural opening of the club king, on which declarer, another leading star, played the knave. On the bidding, a spade shift certainly did not seem indicated, and Mr. Karn decided his best hope would be to lead a trump and at least stop one club ruff. Of course he had no way of knowing that declarer had only two clubs. He thereupon led

(CORNER FLORENCE)

A CENOTAPH
Sir,—If you have not already received the remarks of a number of readers of The Colonist, on the above heading, in view of the inquiry in today's issue, a few lines of explanation may be thought of general interest.

A cenotaph is literally an empty tomb, so a monument or a memorial, a compound word derived from the Greek kenos and taphos; that is to say, while a cenotaph is necessarily a memorial, it is by no means a generic title describing all war or other memorials; and when the memorial marks the actual resting place of any person or persons, the term, cenotaph, would be improperly used.

Incidentally the word, from its origin, would be better spelt and certainly better pronounced if the "k" sound rather than the "g" were given to its initial letter.

ASSISTED IN RESCUE WORK

Commander's Ship Was Lying in Hawke's Bay When Disaster Occurred

Traveling to England where he will report to the Admiralty, Commander H. L. Morgan, C.M.G., D.S.O., R.N., was a passenger aboard the motorliner Aorangi arriving here yesterday from the South Sea. He has just completed a term of service on the New Zealand station.

During his first two years with the New Zealand fleet, Commander Morgan was in command of the flagship, H.M.S. Diomedé, and on his second commission was commander of the sloop H.M.S. Veronica. His ship was at Hawke's Bay when the city of Napier was destroyed in the great earthquake. On that occasion the officers and crew assisted in the rescue work, the ship being converted into a temporary hospital and refuge for the injured and the homeless women and children.

It was a peculiar sensation, Commander Morgan stated, when the water receded and left the ship high and dry for a short time, and equally thrilling when the returning waves floated the vessel again. For his services in connection with this rescue work, he was honored with the C.M.G.

SHIPS ARE LOANED

Loaned to the New Zealand Government, there are four Imperial ships in service in New Zealand waters. They are the cruisers Diomedé and Dunedin, and the sloops Veronica and Laburnum. These ships are manned by Royal Navy officers and 50 per cent of other ranks, the balance being made up of New Zealand recruits. These ships are not under the jurisdiction of the New Zealand Naval Division, being strictly under the control of the Admiralty. Asked where he had obtained his D.S.O., Commander Morgan said, "Oh, just in the routine of duty. I didn't jump overboard into a raging sea under a hail of bursting shells or anything like that. I was in command of a mine-sweeping flotilla during the war, and after the Armistice had to clean up a large area, picking up the floating hazards, and I suppose did it satisfactorily."

HAS RIDICULE FOR OTTAWA PARLEY

T. Guy Sheppard Claims That Economic Conference Was Nothing But a Fizzle

"The Ottawa Conference was a fizzle; it hasn't mattered a tinker's damn and never will," proclaimed T. Guy Sheppard, when speaking on behalf of the People's Movement at a meeting held in the Lake Hill Community Centre last evening. "There is no sense in conferences trying to establish foreign markets, he continued, until we learn to produce for use and not for profit."

Mr. Sheppard extolled the idea of the county increasing the present amount of paper money, stating that the phrase "inflation" was only a mythical bogey.

According to the plan set forth by the speaker the voters would have power to recall their members in the Provincial House at any time. This policy the speaker claimed, if taken to Ottawa, would "put this country on the map."

Mr. Sheppard strongly urged the people to elect their franchise, as a means to change the present condition of the working class, and informed his audience that they would get nothing by blind revolt, but would only halt the wheels of progress for fifty years. He claimed that there was no reason why the people should not have everything they wanted, and prophesied they would get their desires if they would only look into the political situation with his "two-by-four intellect."

Prior to Mr. Sheppard's address Norman Brown and R. J. McFarlane outlined the work being accomplished by the party.

Mr. McFarlane stated that he was placing himself in the hands of the people, and if they elected him, he promised that money would never bribe him and stated that he would gladly die for the rights of his constituency.

Mr. McFarlane vented his ire against the press by stating: "The press is the greatest public enemy in the province today," he based his accusation chiefly upon the fact that the papers were predicting a return to prosperity.

R. J. Miller, secretary-treasurer of the People's Movement, occupied the chair, and at the conclusion of the meeting a membership drive was instituted.

EX-COUNCILLOR IS CANDIDATE

G. Stanley Eden Will Seek Ward Seven Saanich Council Seat

G. STANLEY EDEN

A four-cornered contest for the Ward Seven Saanich Council seat was assured last night when ex-Councillor G. Stanley Eden announced that he would seek return to municipal office in the elections next January.

Mr. Eden has long been a Ward Seven resident and has always taken an active interest in municipal affairs and in the welfare of the ward through the ratepayers' association. He served on the council as the ward representative for three years in 1928-29-30, during which time he was chairman of the health committee. Mr. Eden made no definite announcement as to his platform, but made reference to the lack of road work in the ward this year.

With four already in the contest there is every evidence that chief interest in the election of councillors will centre in Ward Seven. Those announced are Mr. Eden, W. H. Hadley, Thomas L. Sargeant and Samuel Taylor. Councillor F. T. Rogers has as yet made no announcement, but it is believed he will seek re-election. Several other likely candidates have also been mentioned.

A meeting of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association will be held next Friday, November 11, when Charles H. French, retired fur commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Company, who is the only candidate for the reeveship thus far, ex-Councillor Eden and other candidates will be invited to address the meeting.

Constables George Clayards, Lewis Parr and Alex. Nichol were commended by Chief of Police Thomas Heatley before going on parade last night for meritorious work.

Constable Nichol captured two young men who have been charged with stealing gasoline from automobiles and service stations.

The other constables were commended for their work in capturing two young men and a girl early yesterday morning in a daring chase through the heart of the city. The trio are now being held for questioning in connection with Nanaimo robberies.

RUTH NICHOLS' PLANE DAMAGED

Aviatrix Unhurt When Machine Skidded and Buried Wing in Ground

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The plane of Ruth Nichols, noted woman flyer, was badly damaged early today at the start of what was to have been a transcontinental dash in the campaign of President Hoover's campaign. Miss Nichols escaped injury.

The aviatrix, planning a nonstop assault on the cross-country record of Amelia Earhart, taxied down a 3,000-foot runway at Floyd Bennett field, skidded off and went into a ground loop. The left wing of her plane buried itself in the ground.

Ambulances rushed to the scene in the belief she was injured, but she cut the switch to avoid fire and jumped out quickly, expressing exasperation over the mishap.

PRaises WORK OF BI-ACOUSTIC SET

James H. Fletcher Describes Powers of New Radio With Latest Features

"The Victor company has contributed no greater instrument for human happiness than the amazing new bi-acoustic radio with phonograph combination and home recording," says James H. Fletcher, of Fletcher Bros. Music Store. "Words cannot overemphasize the powers of this sensational instrument which is on display today for the first time. It is primarily a radio, but with the bi-acoustic feature the musical range is tremendously increased. Reception is clear, distinct and undistorted whether it is tuned down to full volume or turned full on with full volume."

Still retaining the finer tone-quality of bi-acoustic reception, one is able to play only ordinary records but the new programme transcriptions as well. The latter are known as long-playing records and enable the listener to enjoy a half-hour of music without changing records; thus it is possible to listen to an entire act of the opera without any unnatural interruption in the continuity.

Weddings

TITFORD—CORNISH
NANAIMO, Nov. 3.—At the bride's home on 610 Halliburton Street, yesterday, the wedding took place of Beatrice, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cornish to Mr. Stanley Titford, only son of Mr. Charles Titford, of Port Alberni. Rev. A. Bowick performed the ceremony. Mrs. Clarence Cornish was matron of honor, and Mr. Clarence Cornish, brother of the bride supported the groom.

Women's Institutes of Vancouver Island

STRAWBERRY VALE
At a meeting of Strawberry Vale Women's Institute held on Tuesday afternoon the members planned to give a silver tea on Thursday, November 10, at Colquitz Hall, corner of Roy and Wilkinson Roads, from 3 until 5 o'clock.

The object is to create a fund so that the institute can present a flag to the recently organized company of Girl Guides. The Guides will be present in uniform on this occasion to help in serving refreshments, and will also provide some interesting features of the entertainment.

It was decided to hold a special meeting at an early date to meet a committee in order to discuss the formation of a troop of Sea Scouts, with headquarters at Strawberry Vale Hall. Members will be notified and are urgently requested to attend this meeting.

The annual gift of ninety-eight pounds of flour was directed to be sent to the Solarium.

Mrs. Humphries made an appeal for clothing to be sent to Saskatchewan. The former bundle which was sent was gratefully received and the need is pressing. Anyone having clothes or material of any kind for this purpose is asked to communicate with Mrs. J. Harper, president, Mrs. Foster, Wellington Road, or any member of the institute.

The next card party will take place on Monday, November 7, at 8 p.m., at Colquitz Hall. Refreshments will be served and old time dancing enjoyed.

Clever Victoria Student Wins Memorial Bursary

Miss Idele Wilson, Former High School Girl, Receives $1,600 Scholarship Presented by Daughters of Empire—To Study in London

At a meeting of the committee of selection under the Provincial Chapter, I.O.D.E., yesterday, Miss Idele L. Wilson, daughter of the late Mr. Henry O. Wilson, who served with the Canadian Army Medical Corps from 1916 to 1919, and whose death was due to illness contracted while in service, was awarded the 1932-33 I.O.D.E. post-graduate scholarship (overseas) of $1,600, given under the order's war memorial foundation.

Miss Wilson attended Victoria High School and Victoria College, going on to the University of British Columbia, where, in 1931, she was granted her B.A. with first class honors. In 1931-32 she attended Clark University, Worcester, Mass., and was granted her M.A. Last year she presented an essay for the Walter Frewen Lurd Prize in London and was awarded second place, receiving high praise from the examiners.

A BRILLIANT STUDENT
Reports and letters show Miss Wilson to be a brilliant student, eager and keen in her work, and one letter states, "her industry was remarkable."

Miss Wilson is now at the Ontario College of Education, taking a year's course leading to a high school assistant's certificate and a supplementary certificate in physical education.

Miss Wilson hopes to go to the University of London to study history and economics.

PERMANENT MEMORIAL
These scholarships form the permanent war memorial of the I. O. D. E. A sum has been set aside and invested, sufficient to support nine scholarships every year in perpetuity, the value of each to be not less than $1,400 and not more than $1,700. Yesterday's was the tenth award in British Columbia. Six $1,400 and four $1,600 scholarships have been given. This with the twenty $1,200 Provincial bursaries awarded bring the province's total gift under the war memorial foundation to $38,800 since 1920.

The students at U.B.C. and abroad have done outstandingly brilliant work and many now hold positions of influence and responsibility. The members of the committee

CAN TALK WITH PRINCE GEORGE

Radio-telephone Service Has Been Established, Giving Widespread Service

Radio-telephone service between Victoria and Prince George was opened for commercial use yesterday by the Northwest Telephone Company, an associate of the B.C. Telephone Company.

For the first time in its history Prince George is able to talk to the outside world by telephone. A three-hundred-mile radio link from Prince George to the Northwest Telephone Company's radio station at Campbell River on Vancouver Island gives the northern town connection to the system of telephone wires which spread out across the continent. It also makes it possible for Prince George to talk to Europe and other parts of the globe. In fact, as a result of the opening of this new service, a Prince George citizen is able to call up any one of over thirty million telephones, which is more than 90 per cent of all the telephones in the world.

WIDE EXTENSIONS
Prince George is the fourth British Columbia community to receive long-distance telephone service by means of a radio-telephone link. Powell River was first served by radio, but this was later replaced by a submarine cable. Ocean Falls was given radio-telephone service in the Spring of 1931 and Prince Rupert in January of this year. The radio-telephone service to Prince George is restricted to daylight hours, available from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

In the course of experiments prior to the opening of the service, various citizens of Prince George had the opportunity of talking to southern British Columbia points.

The telephone system at Prince George is owned by the Northwest Telephone Company.

ROWLES' BAND TO STAGE CONCERT

An enjoyable programme of entertainment for the concert of Rowles' Boys' Band, which will be held this evening in the Forster Hall, has been arranged under the direction of C. H. Rowles and P. E. George.

Beside the numbers presented by the band, several of the members will act as soloists, together with the following artists: Miss Norma Hurry, Miss Meme Bailey, Marjorie and Jerry Schofield, Harold George and P. E. George. A dance will follow the concert.

LOCAL DEBATING TEAM SELECTED

J. V. Fisher and A. H. Corby to Represent Victoria Against British University Men

Victoria's team to meet the British debaters in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on November 24 was selected after closely-contested trials on Wednesday night. The local representatives will be J. V. Fisher, of the Provincial Department of Finance, and A. H. Corby, a Victoria High School student. They will debate the negative of the subject: "Resolved that democracy has been proved in the last ten years to be a failure."

The team from the British universities is now in Eastern Canada, where it has aroused considerable interest. The tour is being managed by the National Federation of Canadian University Students.

Representatives in the trials were chosen from the Civil Service, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Victoria High School.

It is understood that Judge P. S. Lampman, Professor S. S. Parr and B. C. Nicholas, who officiated last night, will be asked to act as judges on November 24.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

HEARTS IN NARROW AND WIDE INDIVIDUALS

I frequently speak of the greyhound and the bulldog type of men. The greyhound type is the tall, slender individual and the bulldog type is thick set with long body and legs a little shorter than the average for other individuals who are not of the pronounced greyhound or bulldog type.

In our student days we were taught to map out on the chest the underlying heart by means of the type of sound caused by striking the chest with the fingers or a little hammer-like instrument. We thus learned what were the normal limits of the heart under the breast bone and ribs. Thus if a heart were smaller or larger than what was considered normal a note was made of it.

However, now that physicians are considering the different types of build, it has been found that in persons of average build ninety per cent of hearts are within normal limits. Among those of slender build the width of the heart is below minus ten per cent of the normal in twelve per cent of the cases. Among those of thick set build the width or diameter of the heart is above plus ten per cent in eleven per cent of the cases.

In other words, the fact that in a certain percentage of the slender the heart is narrower than normal and wider in the thick set must now be remembered.

Another interesting point brought out by Dr. H. A. Treadgold and H. L. Burton, Great Britain, was the large number of abnormally small hearts (23 per cent) among cases where the strength of the heart was below normal in striking contrast to the very small proportion (4 per cent) of hearts below normal in strength in those who were thickset.

While there may be fewer cases of high blood pressure among those of slender build, nevertheless deficient, or hearts below normal in strength, are commonest in those of slender build.

What can you do about your heart and the strengthening of it if you or your youngster, are of slender build?

For yourself a brisk walk daily will actually strengthen your heart, and render you less liable to a "weak" heart.

For your youngster, plenty of play-outdoors, particularly play that involves leg work or running. Leg exercises, by making the heart pump the blood to the large muscles of the legs, gradually and safely increases the power of the heart.

"CASTLES IN SPAIN"
A reader asks the origin of the expression "Castles in Spain" for visionary possessions or accomplishments, things which exist only in dreams.

"Why," he asks, "are they not castles in France or England?"
The expression is a translation of the original French "chateau en Espagne." It dates from the thirteenth century. In its earliest use it seems to have referred to nothing more than building in a foreign country where one had no "standing ground," and the choice of Spain may have been with reference to the arms of Castile. However, it would seem to be highly probable that in its origin, too, the expression had reference to the romantic and quixotic, and even in those days what more colorful background existed for the Frenchman to choose from than Spain?

While there may be fewer cases of high blood pressure among those of slender build, nevertheless deficient, or hearts below normal in strength, are commonest in those of slender build.

What can you do about your heart and the strengthening of it if you or your youngster, are of slender build?

Walter Spaven and Lawson Reach City Caddies' Golf Final

Defending Champion and Last Year's Finalist to Meet Again for Honors at Gorge Vale Club Today—Close Play Features Meet

History will repeat itself in the Victoria city caddies' tournament this morning at the Gorge Vale Golf Club, when Walter Spaven, defending titleholder, meets Ken Lawson in the final for the second successive year. Third and semi-final rounds were completed yesterday in the title and all the flights, with Spaven and Lawson being the survivors in the championship bracket.

Sharp competition marked the tournament and some fine golf was witnessed. Lawson met a stubborn opponent in W. Elliott in the morning round and was carried to the last green before gaining victory via the two-up margin, while Walter Spaven eliminated N. Le Poldiven, 4 and 3. Pat Fletcher advanced to the semi-finals by a fine win over I. Derman, 1 up, while Bobby Spaven took the measure of D. Barr, 7 and 6.

The afternoon matches were both nip-and-tuck, with Lawson and Walter Spaven emerging victorious. Lawson had a narrow escape from elimination at the hands of Fletcher, who fought a gallant battle, losing on the last green, 1 up. The other half of the semi-finals was a family affair, Walter and Bobby Spaven fighting it out. Walter played the same brand of golf that carried him to the crown twelve months ago against Lawson and took his younger brother into camp, 3 and 2.

The championship scramble will start this morning at 9 o'clock. Both lads are shooting good golf and the final is expected to be a repetition of last year's battle when Spaven won out after a great struggle. Bobby Spaven, medalist, will face Bobby Hyne in the first flight final, starting at 9:10 o'clock. A hidden hole met will follow for the rest of the lads.

DAVIES BOYS WILL APPEAR ON SAME CARD

Albie and Jumbo Will Fight in Vancouver Next Tuesday Night

VANCOUVER, Nov. 3.—Next Tuesday night will be a big one for Albie and Jumbo in Vancouver and vicinity. Tod Morgan, former world's junior lightweight champion, himself appears in the main event against Albie Davies, clever young Victoria puncher. They will go six rounds, or maybe less, at the 140-pound weight limit and should furnish lots of pleasing fistie entertainment. Two other six-rounders have been lined up as companion bouts with three four-round bouts completed the first half of the show. Harry Marshall and Johnny McDonald, two of Vancouver's fastest and clearest leather pushers, angle in the semi-windup at 133 pounds, while "Jumbo" Davies, brother of Albie, appears against Frankie Holland, of Spokane, in the opening six-rounder.

Marshall and McDonald are rivals of long standing, with Harry the more experienced of the two. McDonald, however, held his own very well with the rugged Holland in the main event of last Tuesday's show and Marshall is likely to have his hands full.

HOLLAND TOUGH
Holland may be depended upon to give "Jumbo" Davies a battle, as he possesses plenty of ringcraft and carries hefty wallop in both mits. He has won over "Wildcat" Carter and Ah Wing Lee to his credit and also has fought two drawn battles with Lee, the Chinese boy who was such a Northwest sensation a short time back.

The Davies boys, although only youngsters, have been favorites in Northwest rings for some years. Tod Morgan doesn't expect to find the youthful and willing Albie any setup. The former champion has kept in training right along, and will be in good shape for the Victoria lad. For the benefit of the ringworms Tod will work out with Frankie Holland in the auditorium ring.

Jokers to Face North Ward in Trophy Fixture

JOKERS, second place occupants, will clash with North Ward, cellar aggregation, in the only match scheduled in the First Division of the Victoria and District Football League tomorrow afternoon at the lower Beacon Hill Park grounds at 2:45 o'clock in the first round of the Milson Cup series. Due to past performances, Jokers are strong favorites to take the measure of the Wards, who have yet to break into the win column. North Wards have added strength since their last appearance and expect to give their opponents a stiff battle.

Will Play on Half Line for Royals

BILL FINDLER

Bill Findler, left halfback of the New Westminster Royals, who will be seen in action tomorrow afternoon when his team takes the field against Victoria's representative in the Victoria and District League, will play on the half line for the Royals.

Findler played with Oldham Athletic's second-string squad. He signed with Edmonton Veterans on his arrival on Canadian soil, and in 1930 joined the Royals when his services caught the eye of Fred Hume, Royals' president. He is equally at home in the forward line, carrying a wicked drive with either foot.

PEDEN AND AUDY TIED FOR LEAD

Victoria Boy and Montreal Partner Have Best Point Standing

CHICAGO, Nov. 3 (CP).—The Canadian team of "Torchy" Peden and Jules Audy, of Montreal, were in a three-way tie for the leadership tonight at the end of twenty-four hours in Chicago's twenty-eighth International six-day bike-a-thon at the Chicago Stadium.

Tied with the pedaling demons from the Dominion were the French Red Devils, Al Letourneur and Gerhard Debaets, and the Australian-American combination of George Dempsey and Freddy Spencer.

The three pairs had covered 441 miles, 9 laps, with the Canadians having 77 for the best point standing.

NANAIMO TO HAVE HOCKEY LEAGUE

NANAIMO, Nov. 3.—Hockey has taken a strong hold on the young roller skaters of Nanaimo, and a league has been formed.

Five teams form the league. Wideawakes, Bright Spots, Black Hawks, Maple Leafs and B.C. Rangers, and a cup has been donated for competition by A. R. C. Hebdon, local jeweler.

HOCKEY JOTTINGS

Art Ross' squad of Boston Bruins was completed with the arrival at the Quebec training camp of hockey's most colorful defenceman, Eddie Shore, and the one-time Harvard nine-letter man, George Owen, another stalwart of the rearguard.

This brought the Bruins' staff of defencemen up to seven, of whom probably all but four will be sent to the minors.

Others working on the Boston defence are Lionel Hitchcock, "Yip" Foster of Rugby fame, Joe and Frank Jerwa and the erstwhile forward, Percy Galbraith. Galbraith, who has been out of the team since the signing of the brilliant Hitchman, veteran of many campaigns, is certain to be retained, but the others are bidding for the one position left open.

Leo Dandurand announced that Aurel Joliat had come to terms. With the signing of the brilliant, little left-winger only Marjory Burke, hard-hitting defenceman, remains to be signed by the Canadiens.

Eddie Gerard experimented with various combinations on his forward line, while Hooley Smith and Archie Wilson watched activities from the sidelines, still in the holdout ranks. Archie, aggressive defence player, may go to Detroit Red Wings via the cash-sale route.

"Bulit" Joe Simpson thinks his New York Americans are 50 per cent stronger than last season. The Toronto Maple Leafs are the team to beat for the championship, he said, but his star-spangled crew, with the addition of new players designed to give scoring punch, will give the Stanley Cup holders a real battle. Joe gave his opinion at an Oshawa Kiwanis Club luncheon.

Jack Adams' ailing Red Wings are mending rapidly. Herbie Lewis' crooked knee is almost well and he expects to take part in Thursday's exhibition clash with the Detroit Olympics of the International League. Goosie John Ross Roach, recuperating from jaw injuries, and speedy Emil Hanson, of the defence, will probably return to the line-up for Sunday night's game against the same team. Reg Noble and Happy Emms are still absent at holdouts.

Toronto fans to the number of 4,000 greeted the Maple Leafs' return to home ice, where they went through a workout marked by the show better form now, with a week's additional time for conditioning, than they did at the opening game last season.

Harry Watson, who piloted Toronto Nationals to the Allan Cup, National Hockey League, Cooper's major circuit, who retired near the end of last season, is also slated for duty this season.

RIBBONS WILL FACE TROOPS THIS EVENING

Quintettes to Meet in Feature at High—Beavers to Battle C.P.S.

Victoria's four men's basketball quintettes will display their wares to the fans this evening, at the High School gymnasium, in the Victoria and District League, while two of the city's strongest fair sex squads, Harmony and Dad's Cookies, will appear in the third game in the women's senior "B" division. Beavers and C.P.S. will meet in the first fixture, and Blue Ribbons, undefeated leaders, and the Fifth Regiment, will clash in the feature game. The first game will commence at 7:30 o'clock, and action is expected to be the keynote of the evening.

Tommy Macdonald will be in charge. Blue Ribbons will be after their fifth straight win at the expense of the gunners, in the main attraction. The troops dropped a hard-fought tussle Wednesday evening to the lumbermen, and will take the floor with the idea of halting the winning streak of the Ribbons and to increase their hold on second position. These two squads when they last met, which is a good indication that when they take the floor it is anybody's game until the final whistle. The teams will be out with their usual line-ups.

C.P.S. STRENGTHENED

Happy over their 37-34 win over the Fifth, C.P.S. are confident of adding victory No. 2 to their list by humbling the Beavers in the opener. Beavers took the lumbermen in their last argument, 32-30, in the retying monthly. C.P.S. have strengthened since then with the addition of Darrell Bussell and Jack Caddell.

The women's game should produce good basketball, with both teams playing their usual game. Cookies are holding down second place in the league, a game behind the unbeaten Rayshines, while Harmony are in third berth with a fine record.

JOKERS' LINE-UP

Jokers senior football team for tomorrow's match against North Ward in the Milson Cup series in the Victoria and District League follows: Rodgers, Margison, Cann, Stoffer, Rivers, Speller, A. Murray, Sage, Davidson, Viggers and Collins. Players are added to meet at the grounds at 2:30 o'clock.

JUVENILE FOOTBALL

Juvenile Football League fixtures for tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock follow: Hollywood Sheikhs vs. Five C's, lower level Hill Park. Saanich Rangers vs. Oak Bay Athletic, Reynolds Field.

Meets Kruskamp Tonight

TED Thye, Portland heavyweight, who will meet Hardy Kruskamp, Denver, in one of the five ten-minute-round main events on the mat card to be presented at the Pacific Stadium by Promoter "Wimpy" Chilton tonight. In the other half Jack Forreger, Vancouver, will tackle Al Ferreira, of Spain, over the same distance. The men are all heavyweights and plenty of action is expected. A local prelim will open the show at 8:45 o'clock. Women with escorts will be admitted free.

Leaders in First Division Soccer Have Easy Games

Arsenal, Aston Villa and Derby County Expected to Sweep Through Their Matches Tomorrow—Hamilton to Meet Hearts in Scotland

LONDON, Nov. 3 (CP).—Interest in English League First Division contests deserts the leaders this Saturday as the three top teams meet weaker opponents and several evenly-matched outfits clash.

More even matches will be provided in the Huddersfield-Sunderland; Portsmouth-West Bromwich; Bolton-Blackburn Rovers; Liverpool-Leeds United and Chelsea-Birmingham contests.

SECOND DIVISION

Stoke City and Bradford City Second Division leaders, seem likely to continue adding points to their totals Saturday. The leaders are at home to Swansea and Bradford entertain West Ham. The third place Plymouth Argyle battle with an injured knee and MacConachie, ex-Varsity player, was hurt in practice and will not play on Saturday. Ian Acland, Bill Ellis, Roy Haines and Thornbury will comprise the backfield, with Jack Gann as scrum half and Tom Golby as his partner. In the pack, Harry Scott and Basil Hood are the only members of last year's team playing. John Plant, another Canadian code player, Ned Symons, Wray and McGregor form a good nucleus of a fast, fluid scrum, which is completed by Mayhew, Wray and A. D. King. "Sonny" Symons will play in the fullback position.

SENIOR "B" SECTION

In the Senior "B" section close games are expected in all matches. At the new Navy ground at Admiralty Road, the Fifth and Scottish will try out their paces. At the Victoria High School, Victoria College will battle with the Wanderers, and at Work Point Barracks the heavy Garrison XV will meet the J.B.A.A. The College have a lighter team than last year, but with several school stars added to their squad should give the Wanderers a good scrap for the points. The Garrison have a number of players new to the game, but have been training steadily under Bill Wharton and hope to start the season with a win over the J.B.A.A. The Bays have plenty of talent and a good game should result. In the other match, both Regiments are out for honours and the new ground should receive a good christening.

Two intermediate games are scheduled for the season. The Petrels, Wenman's boys will tackle their old rivals, the Victoria College, and the Wanderers play the Fifth Regiment at Oak Bay before the senior tussle. Coaches of the various teams say that competition has been intense for places, there has been a full attendance at practices and all the boys are in tip-top shape for the opening games.

THE LINE-UPS

Complete line-ups follow:

Senior A
Navy—Robinson; Smith, Banfield, McDonald, Williams; Hudson, Stagg; Sweetman, Donald, Nixon, Barker, Adams, Porteous, Coombe, Gaidwell.

Fifth Regiment—McConnan; Williams, Gaunt, Philian, Fleming; A. Gaunt, G. Moore and R. Price; Dickinson, Crawford, Gupta, Johnson, Rowland, Burgess, Rogerson.

STRONG FIFTEENS WILL TAKE FIELD IN OPENING GAMES

Canadian Scottish and Navy to Clash at Willows—J.B.A.A. and Wanderers to Meet at Oak Bay Park—Three Senior "B" and Two Intermediate Matches Billed

With many of last year's stars on deck and a wealth of new talent, English Rugby will open the season with a bang tomorrow. At the Willows Park, recently put in shape, Canadian Scottish, last year's champions, will clash with the Navy, who won the first half last season and gave the Scottish a close tussle for the Barnard Cup. In the other feature game, Bob McMillin's J.B.A.A. will meet the Wanderers at Oak Bay Park. Three Senior "B" matches and two intermediate will round out the opening schedule.

At first sight the Navy appear a formidable aggregation. With a pack of forwards averaging over 100 pounds, a fast backfield and two experienced halves, the sailors should prove a hard team to stop. Robinson, long-kicking fullback, is again the last line of defence. Hudson, red-haired veteran, will be behind the scrum with "Sailor" Stagg, speedy three-quarter, trying out his fly half position. In the scrum, Ken Adams, Bill Porteous, Donald and Swetnam form the nucleus of what looks like one of the strongest packs seen in the city.

The Scottish are trying out a seven-man pack for Saturday's fixture. The Forbes brothers, with Ted May and Roy Grant look a good quartette with Collier, Rockingham and Lund making up the balance. Jackie Bryden has forsaken the position of fullback which will be filled by Oliver, Bryden, Larry Henderson and Harry Robson will fill the middle line, and with Hocking, Northington, Boorman and Copeman, the fighting troops can be counted upon to make the game close.

POWERFUL BACKFIELD

The Bays have lined up a powerful backfield this season and with "Buz" Brown and Murray again filling the halfback positions, should provide some pretty, open Rugby. Pete Turgoose will play left wing with Lynn Patrick, Canadian Rugby star, as his inside man. The other wing is composed of Brian Hunninga, hard-running ex-Scottish player, and Joe Addison, youthful speed merchant, who made a creditable showing in the dashes at the Junior Olympics in Vancouver last Summer. In the forward line the Bays have Dunn, Pettigrew, Sprinkling, Goad, the latter returning to the game after a year's absence, and should hold their own against the best of opposition.

The Wanderers as seems always their fate, start the season handicapped by injuries. Dudley King, 200-pound rep forward of last year, out of the game till Christmas with an injured knee and MacConachie, ex-Varsity player, was hurt in practice and will not play on Saturday. Ian Acland, Bill Ellis, Roy Haines and Thornbury will comprise the backfield, with Jack Gann as scrum half and Tom Golby as his partner. In the pack, Harry Scott and Basil Hood are the only members of last year's team playing. John Plant, another Canadian code player, Ned Symons, Wray and McGregor form a good nucleus of a fast, fluid scrum, which is completed by Mayhew, Wray and A. D. King. "Sonny" Symons will play in the fullback position.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
Chained Knowledge—The Chained Library of Grantham, which is situated in a room over the south porch of the Grantham Parish Church, was founded by the Reverend Francis Trigge in 1598. Owing to the scarcity of books, a printed volume in those days frequently exceeded the value of a farm. Books being easily movable had to be chained to their shelves to guard them against theft.

England and Holland still preserve a number of ancient chained libraries.

ST. JOHN'S TO MEET REGINA ROUHRIDERS

Manitoba and Saskatchewan Grid Champs Will Battle Tomorrow

WINNIPEG, Nov. 3 (CP).—Conceded a little better than even chance of breaking Manitoba's seven-year football link, Winnipeg St. John's, provincial entry in the Dominion Rugby playdowns, left for Regina tonight. They will meet Rouhriders in an interprovincial Western semi-final Saturday.

Not since 1925 has a Winnipeg team succeeded in reaching a Western final. Headed by Coach Russ Rehholz, twenty-one players made up the squad which left for the West, confident the 47-5 defeat handed them by the Roughriders last year will be reversed.

The winner of Saturday's game will meet the winner of the Calgary Altonam Tigers-Vancouver Mercurians fixture at Vancouver, Saturday, in the Western final.

The line-up follows: Russ Rehholz, Eddie James, Andy Currie, Tommy, Moberley, Albert Urness, Alf Woods, Herb Moberley, Eric Law, Bob "Tiny" Thomson, Jack Auld, Bill Workman, Johnny Patrick, Alf McLaughlin, Steve Olander, Norm Penny, Bud Trencher, Maco Johnson, Bill Ceretti, Fred Hansell, Joe Bernack and Fred Kavanagh.

LES CANADIENS TO HAVE SPEEDY TEAM AGAIN

Flying Frenchmen To Have All Last Season's Regulars

Howie Morenz Will Be Pivot Player on First Attacking Line—Defence Unchanged—Three Forward Lines to Be Used by Manager Newsy Lalonde

MONTREAL, Nov. 3 (CP).—Old Newsy Lalonde, who personally assisted in writing some early Canadian history into the hockey records, is back in the familiar Montreal stand doing business as usual in the commodity he once dished out himself as a Flying Frenchman—speed.

No stranger to the fashions of the Montreal league, Newsy is grooming for the new season a Canadian machine built around a half dozen or so big-scale merchants in speed.

He has injected just enough new blood to keep the habitant pulse beating faster than that of the normal hockey outfit.

The first string he has allowed to stand, and only two newcomers will be worked in with the second and third forward lines. One of these is Leo Gaudreault, high-scoring centre brought up from Providence Reds of the Canadian-American League, the other is eighteen-year-old Paul Marcel Raymond, sensational Montreal amateur, a left winger.

STARTING LINE-UP
The line-up Lalonde starts against Boston Bruins in the opening game of the season at Montreal, November 12, is pretty sure to be this: Goal, Hainsworth; defence, Sylvio Mantha and Marty Burke; centre, Howie Morenz; left wing, Johnny Gagnon; right wing, Aurel Joliat.

This is the combination that has been making up Canadian triumphs for the last two seasons. Morenz, the flaming matter of every Canadian team since 1923, starts in as good condition as he has ever been for November, his blazing speed apparently undiminished.

Important Cane Meeting Will Be Held at Y.M.C.A.

AN important meeting of the Victoria and District Basketball League will be held this evening at the Y.M.C.A. at 8:15 o'clock. The gathering will probably decide whether or not the city will play outlast basketball or go back with the British Columbia Association. A delegate will be selected to attend the meeting to be held in Nanaimo Sunday afternoon. All members of the executive and team representatives are requested to be present, as the city's future as far as the game is concerned will be at stake.

Canzoneri to Meet Billy Petrolle in Title Bout Tonight

Lightweight Champion 2-to-1 Favorite to Keep Crown—20,000 Expected to Contribute Gate of $80,000 at New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP).—A champion offers his head to the axeman for the first time in the indoor season as dapper little Tony Canzoneri, once a newboy on the streets of New Orleans, battles fifteen rounds against Billy Petrolle in defence of his lightweight title in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

Favored at 2 to 1 to win, perhaps score a knockout, Canzoneri, a brilliant ringman, finished his training chores today, weighing only 135 pounds, well under the class limit.

Petrolle demonstrated his ability to make the weight by scaling only 139 1/2 two days ago.

Every indication points to a capacity crowd of close to 20,000 and gate receipts of about $80,000. Two years ago they met in Chicago and the veteran from Fargo, N.D., won a ten-round decision.

IMPRESSIVE RECORD
Since then Petrolle has become the most sensational of the lightweight and welterweight contenders. His victims include Jimmy McLarnin, King Tut, Justo Suarez, Ray Miller, Bat Espino and Eddie Rahn, and he has lost decisions only to Jackie "Kid" Berg and McLarnin.

Canzoneri, meanwhile, came back from his defeat by Petrolle to develop the perfect co-ordination that sometimes overnight makes a knock-out puncher of an ordinary fighter.

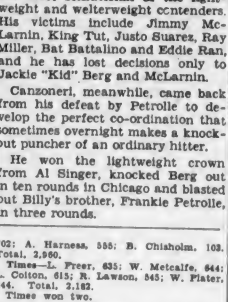

He won the lightweight crown from Al Singer, knocked Berg out in ten rounds in Chicago and blasted out Billy's brother, Frankie Petrolle, in three rounds.

HONOR DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Official Order of Service at the Cenotaph Next Friday Issued

The annual service in commemoration of the fourteenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice will take place on Friday morning, November 11, at the Cenotaph, in Parliament Square, commencing at 10:30 o'clock, with the arrival of the various ex-service units. The official order of service was issued yesterday.

At 10:45 His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor will arrive at the Cenotaph and will take the royal salute. At 10:59 a bugler will sound the "Last Post," and at 11 o'clock a gun will be fired to note the commencement of the two minutes of silence in memory of fallen soldiers. A gun will be fired at the conclusion of the period of silence and a bugler will sound "Reveille," after which divine service will commence.

The hymn "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" will be sung by a choir, accompanied by the band of the Canadian Scottish Regiment. Prayers will then be offered by Major (Rev.) W. Barton, V.D., chaplain of the Fifth B.C. Coast Brigade of the Canadian Artillery, who will be followed by Captain (Rev. Father) A. B. W. Wood, chaplain of the First Battalion, the Canadian Scottish Regiment.

At 11:08 wreaths will be deposited individually at the base of the Cenotaph. During the laying of the wreaths a piper will play "Flowers of the Forest." The wreaths will be placed in the following order: His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bishop of Columbia, the Bishop of Victoria, the Premier of British Columbia, the district officer commanding M.D. 11, the commander in charge of R.C.N. at Esquimalt, His Worship the Mayor of Victoria, a representative of bereaved mothers and ex-service men's organizations. After the placing of wreaths by the foregoing, citizens may place their tributes while the hymn "O Valiant Hearts" is being sung.

At the conclusion of the service the guards of honor and ex-service organizations will march past His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor. The saluting base will be in front of the Empress Hotel, Government Street.

What Today Means to You
by MARY BLAKE

If November 4 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., from 1 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. and from 5:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. The danger hours are from 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Influences this November 4 seem to point to the occurrence of some totally unlooked for happenings. It may possibly take the form of particularly good news concerning a relative or very dear friend, or perhaps the unexpected appearance of someone bearing good tidings; possibly it may be a change for the better at the office. At any rate the day should prove a cheerfully happy one. A day for love, romance and happy memories.

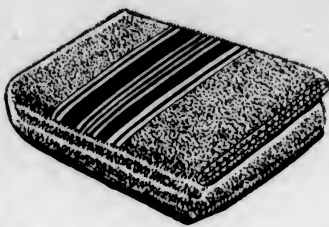

The child born on this November 4 will most likely be a great lover of the outdoors. His kind heart and gentle disposition will early be seen in his care and understanding of animals of all kinds. He will be possessed of a better than average mind but his interests will not be directed necessarily towards the acquisition of knowledge from books. The child will be adept at making things with his hands.

If you were born on November 4 you are probably the possessor of an almost insatiable curiosity concerning the fundamental facts and workings of things. If you are a young person you probably delight in taking watches apart, or if a more mature person you are more than likely to tear your car engine or your vacuum cleaner apart, at not infrequent periods. You have a decided inventive turn of mind and are mechanically inclined. You would do well as an engineer, in research work of some kind, or in some field where you could use your creative ability.

You enjoy hard work and put great emphasis upon it as a leading factor in making a success. You are inclined to look down upon anyone to whom things come easily. You have many friends and enjoy them, and probably your greatest happiness comes in being able to help them in various ways. You are noted for your honesty and sincerity. Women born on November 4 would do well in business but usually they do not care to embark upon a career that leads them to rub elbows with the business multi-millionaires. They generally derive great pleasure from running their homes and whenever possible they enjoy entertaining their friends in a grand and lavish manner. They are not always the most economical housewives.
